The successful tenderer will be required to deposit a security of 2% on the value of articles for which the tender is accepted for the due fulfilment of the contract.

All supplies will be subject to examination by the Superintendent of the Press. Those considered not up to quality, will be rejected, and will remain at the risk of the contractor.

Tenders must specify the rate at which the tenderers agree to supply; these rates must include all charges up to delivery at the office of the Central Press at Bangalore.

Tenders must be submitted by 1st March 1902, to the Superintendent of the Mysore Government Press at Bangalore who will open them at 1 P. M. on that date.

Further particulars of supply, etc., will be made known to the successful tenderer.

The Superintendent reserves the right of rejecting any tender without assigning any reason therefor.

Notice dated 7th February 1902.

Much inconvenience is caused by indents for stationery and forms being sent to the Superintendent of the "PRESS" directly, it is notified that in future all stray requisitions for stationery and forms, either newly prescribed by Government or in use already, should invariably be sent to the Superintendent of "Stationery Depot" in the first instance, vide paras 24 and 46 of the Stationery Rules.
